

tion movement.

Russian reactionaries have been beaten. They opposed the czar's plan to make future laws not to be effective without consent of the national assembly and the council of the empire.

President Mitchell anticipates no development in the mine situation for some days.

Edward Field, probate clerk at Providence, turns over $2488.50 and resigns, following a financial investigation.

President Mellon says the New Haven road has no idea of giving up the use of the Grand Central station in New York.

James H. Hyde, formerly vice president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, as well as Richard A. McCurdy, former president of the Mutual Life Insurance company, before sailing for Europe made a written promise to District Attorney Jerome to return to this country.

try any time their presence is desired here.

Professor Francis G. Peabody says the German people are the natural allies of the Americans.

Saturday, March 3.

John R. Walsh, president of the defunct Chicago National bank, which closed its doors Dec. 18, 1905, is charged with violation of the national banking laws in making false returns to the controller of the currency and with converting to his own use without proper authority funds of the banks amounting to $3,000,000.

It is denied that Queen Dowager Margherita intends touring through the United States, as repeatedly announced in the American press.

For the first time in the history of the ice business, the Burlington (Vt.) dealers have been compelled to resort to harvesting operations at night, owing

As the result of a series of special councils held under the presidency of the czar, the main guarantees of Russian liberty have been granted.

The will of the late John A. McCall, for many years president of the New York Life Insurance company, has been filed for probate. According to the petition for probate the estate is valued at $1,000,000.

Friday, March 2.

That the railroad rate bill will be passed by the senate practically as it came from the house is an admission that the opponents of the measure are almost ready to make.

A new serum for the alleviation of dysentery has been discovered. The serum is extracted from horses and in

The magistrate at Nanchung, China, who was wounded during a dispute with Catholic missionaries, resulting in a riot and the killing of a number of missionaries, is dead.

Harry Teeny, who was knocked out by Frank Neil, the bantam champion pugilist, died as a result of the contest.

Deputy Sheriff Abbott broke open the safe in the Lawrence (Gloss) office of Herman Cassel & Co., the Worcester ticket brokers, who disappeared recently. Nothing of value was found in the safe.

Manuel Silva, charged with causing the death of Charles H. Witter at New London, Conn., was found guilty of murder in the second degree.

Thursday, March 1.

What threatened to be a tie-up of the work in the granite quarries of Milford, Mass., has been averted by the signing of a new bill by the manufacturers and the engineers and workmen. An increase is granted over the previous bill of wages.

J. H. Lofland and E. W. Chaffee, two of the three midshipmen dismissed from the naval academy for hazing and reinstated by special act of congress, have tendered their resignations from the service.

Roman Lamps. Many of the Roman lamps were of many sizes, but most of them very closely resembled what is at present denominated a sauce or gravy boat. At one end there was a ring, through which the finger was passed when the light was carried. The body of the vessel was filled with oil, and at the other end there was a small tube, through which a rag with

A South African Name.
The bardy Boer voorrekkers had a fine sense of poetry in naming places in South Africa. In the Transvaal there is a place which rejoices in the name of Waachteenheirjeboedaboaschfontein. "It is a name," says a Cape Town exchange, "which speaks of leisure, whose gentle invitation to the thirsty traveler to rest a little by the brook beneath the cool shade of the tree calls up at once the thought of a green oasis in a dry and barren land."

Once when Mme. de Maintenon, who had risen from the gutter to grandeur, was looking pensively in the golden pool at Versailles her companion, noting the fish in the crystal water, observed, "How languid the carp are." "Yes," replied the famous beauty, with a sigh, "they are like me; they miss their mud."

Man's Helpmeet.
She was not made out of his head to top him, not out of his feet to be tramped upon by him, but out of his side to be equal with him, under his arm to be protected and near his heart to be loved.—Matthew Henry.

It is not helps, but obstacles; not facilities, but difficulties, that make men.
— Matthews.